

Leadership Notebooks

Leadership Notebooks

	Data Notebooks	Leadership Notebooks
Charts for tracking key metrics in various academic areas	Yes-typically selected and designed by teachers.	Yes- data that students have chosen to tack as part of their WIG. Everything else is tracked in their "Additional Data Tracking" section.
Behavior Tracking Pages	Often Included	May be included. Data that students have chosen to tack as part of their WIG. Everything else is tracked in their "Additional Data Tracking" section.
Student Goal Pages	Sometimes included.	Strongly emphasized in the WIG section. Students are also taught how to effectively set goals and track their progress with scoreboards.
Leadership Roles Information	No.	Yes- detailed information about leadership roles and what students learn from them.
A place to collect and celebrate Victories	No.	Yes- A specific section for students to collect things that affirm their worth and potential.
Information about Student-Led Conferences	Occasionally Included.	Yes- detailed information about Student-Led Conferences and Data Chats
Reference Information (calendars, dress code, etc.)	May be included.	May be included.

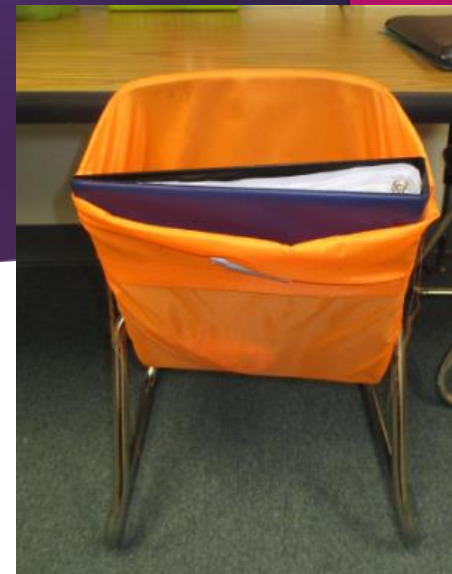

Tabs

- ▶ Leadership Notebooks are organized by the following tabs:
 - ✓ WIG's
 - ✓ Additional Data Tracking
 - ✓ Leadership Roles
 - ✓ Victories
 - ✓ Student-Led Conference Information

How does this fit into your day?

- ▶ First thing in the morning (log attendance)
- ▶ End of the day (track behavior)
- ▶ During independent time (to check goals and action plans)

Making Them Accessible

Parent Involvement

- ▶ Sending binders home
- ▶ Student Led Conferences
- ▶ Adult-Child

Examples

- ▶ Video examples and handouts

Reflections

Knowledge/Use

Next steps for myself